Baltimore Conference of M. E. Church South Opens Business Sessions Today.

> THE HERALD BUREAU, R. E. Knight & Son, 622-623 King Street.

Alexandria, Va., March 21-A Miss Manuel, about 35 years old, of Bristow, Prince William County, about thirty miles south of Alexandria, was struck and instantly killed shortly after 3 o'clock this afternoon by northbound Chesapeake and Ohio passenger train No. 4, and her com-panion, Miss Mary Dickens, of Bristow, was badly injured. A third young woman, whose name was not learned here escaped injury by grabbing hold of a telegraph pole.

According to information received in

Alexandria, the three young women were on a bridge crossing a run at Bristow and were walking along the track. They stepped off one track on which there was an approaching freight, onto the other track, oblivious of the approach of the hesapeake and Ohio train from the
